

RESPECT

Ourselves, our Children and our Community

Saturday, April 27, 2019

8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

As early childhood educators, we often criticize ourselves harshly while giving love and credit to others unconditionally. We deserve the same care and respect.

This conference is going to be packed with presentations from Early Childhood professionals who recognize and RESPECT the importance of our work.

Sessions will be available for Child Care Directors, Family Child Care Providers, Infant, Toddler and Preschool teachers as well as those who teach K- 3 children. Come join us and leave with new knowledge and a greater RESPECT for yourself and all the hard work all of us do for children, families and our communities every day.
